

Brett: Hey, Shane. How old is your washing machine?

Shane: It's ancient! I bought it fifteen years ago, and it still works fine.

Brett: My dad just replaced our old washing machine. He bought the best, most expensive washing machine.

Shane: The most expensive washing machine isn't necessarily the best one, you know. Was it imported, or was it made in this country?

Brett: It was made in Germany. Don't you know that German-made products are the best in the world?

Shane: If you have the best washing machine, then why do you have that big stain on your collar?

Brett: Because my mom didn't have enough money to buy soap!

- ❖ What are some things that you can replace? What things are impossible to replace, or "irreplaceable"?
- ❖ Do you own any imported products? What products?
- ❖ Which country do you think makes the best products? Why?
- ❖ When do people get stains? How do you get a stain out?
