

Diana: Do you hear a noise?

Jenny: Yes, I can hear a machine. It is very loud.

Diana: Can you guess what kind of machine it is?

Jenny: Let me think. Uh, it sounds like a vacuum cleaner.

Diana: You're right. My mother is upstairs. She is vacuuming the carpet.

Jenny: We don't have any carpets in our house, so I never need to use a vacuum cleaner.

- ❖ What noises can you hear right now?
- ❖ What makes loud noises?
- ❖ How do you clean the floors in your house?

Make a sentence: That noise sounds like a

_____.

We use the Present Tense to talk about things that always happen, or habits.

- I go to school at 7:00.
- Lizards climb on the walls.

Also, we use the present tense to talk about things that are always true, or facts.

- The sun rises in the east.
- Flowers need water to live.

In the Present Tense, if the subject is He, She, or It, you must add -s to the verb.

- Wrong: Daniel eat dinner at 7:00. (x)
- Right: Daniel eats dinner at 7:00.

Fix the mistakes in the following sentences:

1. Julie like to play baseball.

2. My friend lend me a pencil every day.

3. Diana walk to school every morning.

4. The baby cry when he is hungry.
