

Goldilocks and the Three Bears

Once upon a time there was a girl named Goldilocks.

She was verb + ing through a place and found a small house. The door was adjective, so she went inside. She saw three bowls of food on the table. The first one tasted too adjective. The second one tasted too adjective, but the third one was just right.

Goldilocks wanted to sleep. She saw three furniture. She laid on the first one, and it was too adjective. The second one was too adjective, but the third one was just right. Later, the three bears who lived there came home. They saw Goldilocks verb+ing on the furniture. Baby Bear shouted, “something you shout !” Goldilocks past tense verb and ran out.

THE END