

8.3 Comparative Adjectives: as (adjective) as

To say that 2 things are the same, you use "as (adjective) as."

Ken is taller than Shana.
Jay is taller than Shana.
Ken is as tall as Jay.

Fill in the blanks below with "as (adjective) as."

My car is big.
Your car is big, too.
My car is as big as yours.

Jake is 14 years old.
Keith is 14 years old, too.
Keith is _____ Jake.

This house is 4 meters tall.
That house is also 4 meters tall.
This house is _____ that house.

The new chair is very comfortable.
The old chair is very comfortable, too.
The new chair is _____ the old chair.