

7.9 Irregular Comparative Adjectives

Some adjectives are "irregular."
This means they have special comparative forms.

Here are some common irregular adjectives:

good	→	better
bad	→	worse
far (distance)	→	farther
far (extent)	→	further
ill (health)	→	worse
many/much	→	more
well (health)	→	better

Fill in the blanks with a comparative adjective to complete the sentences below.

1. I feel ill today. I hope I don't feel _____ tomorrow.
2. The post office is far from here. The library is even _____.
3. The first movie was _____ than the second movie.
4. I'm sorry you don't feel well. I hope you feel _____ soon!
5. I have too much homework today. I hope I don't have _____ homework tomorrow.