

3.6 Count Nouns & Noncount Nouns

You can use "some" with both count and noncount nouns!

Count Nouns

dog → some dogs
book → some books
window → some windows

friend → some friends
knife → some knives
child → some children

Noncount Nouns

milk → some milk
cake → some cake
juice → some juice

rice → some rice
love → some love
money → some money

Correct the errors in the sentences below.

1. We have some dog and many cat in our house.

2. I spilled a few juice on some moneys.

3. We have many time! We can read a little books!

4. There is some soups and a few waters on the table.

