

5.5 Embedded Questions with "if"

With Yes/No questions, we often use embedded questions with the word "if."

Here are two questions:

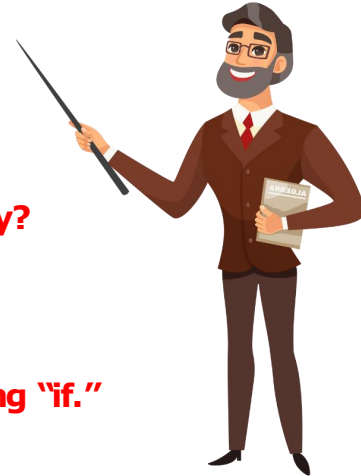

Are James and Kyle coming to class today? (Yes or No?)

Did Bill buy a new car? (Yes or No?)

Here are these questions as embedded questions using "if":

Do you know if James and Kyle are coming to class today?

Do you know if Bill bought a new car?

Rewrite the following sentences as embedded questions using "if."

1. Is Bill's car new?

2. Does Julie have a new computer?

3. Do they plan to go to a movie tonight?

4. Does school start in August?

5. Are Mike and Jane planning to get married?

6. Did Anna find her missing dog?

