

4.10 Future Tense: "gonna"

When we talk fast, sometimes "going to" sounds like "gonna."
 (You should not write the word "gonna," but it is okay to say it when you are talking with your friends.)

I	am	going to (gonna)	see a movie on Saturday.
He / She / It	is		come with me.
You / We / They	are		get a part-time job.
			be hot this summer.
			go to the beach on Sunday.
			be tired if you go running.
			review our homework tonight.

Say future tense sentences with the following subjects and verbs.
 Practice saying both "going to" and "gonna."

1. May – sleep – all day Saturday
2. Tyrone – clean the house – later this afternoon
3. Tina – look for a job – after school
4. My dog – go to the dog park – tomorrow morning
5. Steven and I – see a concert – this weekend
6. The car – die – if we don't get gas
7. I – try to read a whole book – this weekend
8. My aunt – visit us – sometime next year
9. This class – end – in a month or two
10. It – snow – tonight

