

6.8 Relative Clauses (that / which / where / when / who / whose)

Combine these sentences. Write an identifying (no commas) relative clause using the word in parentheses.

1. I want to go to a university. The university should have a good science program. (that)

---

2. James is my classmate. His hair is long and curly. (whose)

---

3. James is my classmate. His hair is long and curly. (who)

---

4. She is the woman. I told you about her yesterday. (who)

---

5. I visited a famous house in Amsterdam. Anne Frank hid in this house during World War II. (where)

---

---

6. That's the girl! She stole my computer! (who)

---

7. That's the girl. Someone stole her laptop. (whose)

---

8. I read an interesting article yesterday. The article explained gravity. (which)

---

