

Idioms – G

Game on!

- You say this when you accept a challenge or a dare from someone.

Get something off your chest

- When you get something off your chest, you talk about something that had been bothering you, but that you hadn't told anyone yet.

Give (someone) a hand

- To help someone do something, or
- To applaud; clap after a performance

Give (someone) a piece of your mind

- When you give someone a piece of your mind, you yell at someone or tell someone why you are very angry at him/her.

(Take it with a) grain of salt

- Don't take it seriously; don't necessarily believe it, because it's not necessarily true

(It's all) Greek to me

- This means that you don't understand something at all (like it's written in Greek).

Grin and bear it

- To "bear" means to "endure," so if you "grin and bear" something, that means that you accept something that you don't like without complaining.
